

I. Purpose

The Johnson & Johnson Scholarship is intended to provide financial assistance of a matriculated undergraduate student, rising sophomore or higher enrolled at a 4 year accredited U.S. college/university full time.

The objective of this scholarship is to support students who are committed to their academic studies and demonstrate evidence of being a good citizen as stated in the Johnson & Johnson Credo.

II. Criteria/Eligibility

An applicant must be a matriculated student, with a status of rising sophomore or higher who is enrolled at a 4 year accredited college/university and is working full time towards their undergraduate degree within the US.

The scholarship committee will review completed applications. Awards will be made on the basis of the following criteria:

- Proven academic performance – minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0
- Strong and consistent community involvement
- Currently enrolled in a STEM-related major (with emphasis on Information Technology)
- Past recipients of this scholarship are not eligible to apply

Note: Students who have been selected for scholarship awards are required to meet with the Johnson & Johnson committee attending the annual BDPA Technology Conference in August 2018. Limited travel assistance can be made available on an as-needed basis. In addition to the awarding of the scholarship there will be opportunities for scholarship winners to participate in Johnson & Johnson's summer internships and coops.

Excerpt from Johnson & Johnson's Credo

We are responsible to the communities in which we live and work and to the world community as well.
We must be good citizens — support good works and charities and bear our fair share of taxes.
We must encourage civic improvements and better health and education.
We must maintain in good order
the property we are privileged to use, protecting the environment and natural resources.
